A PARTIAL INSIGHT GIVEN OF THE WORKINGS

Country Order Department!

The plan of our COUNTRY ORDER DEPARTMENT is simple, and a decided improvement upon the old one of sending out solicitors. The advantages and workings of our mode of sending out goods has proved so satisfactory, and is so greatly appreciated, that we are now compelled to employ ELEVEN CLERKS, whose sole business it is to attend to this branch, and they are kept constantly busy in selecting, packing and shipping packages in answer to orders received.

Goods are carefully selected and orders filled, under the supervision of the proprietor, C. H. GILMAN, by competent and experienced clerks, with care and to the best advantage of the absent purchaser. In this way parties being hundreds of miles distant from the city are enabled to purchase goods at even less trouble than those living within

RED HOUSE

Was first to organize a COUNTRY ORDER DEPARTMENT; first to issue PRICE LISTS in book form; first to MARK GOODS IN PLAIN FIGURES, and strictly to have ONE PRICE, which was very annoying and up-hill business at first, as it was something entirely new, and people thought us too independent. But the plan in the end gave the very best satisfaction, and TO-DAY we can show 20,000 names which are and have been our customers. The dispatch with which orders are filled, and the number of hands employed will lead to the conclusion and the fact that our COUNTRY ORDER DEPARTMENT SALES amount every month away up into the thousands, and this work is so quietly done that it is not even dreamed of even by those who quite frequently visit our store. Goods are almost daily being sent to Oregon, Nevada, Montans, Arizons, and other States and Territories and intermediate points. As we carry one of the largest stocks in the State, orders can always be filled right in our store with dispatch, not having to go outside to fill orders, as some stores do that represent a Country Order Department. When they get an order, go outside and purchase it, paying a dealer's profit, and then charging a profit for themselves, so that when the goods are received they cost the purchaser about what they could be bought for at a

To further inform those unacquainted with this Department, we copy the following order as a sample of how this work is done:

giving my testimony regarding the wonderful curative properties of your invaluable medicine, HUNT'S REMEDY. During the past six or seven years I have been a great sufferer from kidney disease, and during a great part of the time my sufferings have been so intense as to be indescribable. Only those who have suffered by this dread disease know of the awful backache and pains of all kinds, accompanied by great weakness and which invariably attend it. I had all these troubles intensified, and was in such bad condition that I could not get up out of my chair except by putting | ful fortitude. my hands on my knees, and almost rolling out before I could straighten up. I tried the best doctors and many kinds of medicine, but all failed to help me, and I experimented so long endeavoring to get in seeking for relief my attention was directed by a friend to the remarkable cures of kidney diseases, etc., which were being accomplished by HUNT'S REMEDY. I was induced to try it, and began to take it, and very soon "limbered up" as it were; my severe backache, and the intense pains I had suffered so long, speedily disappeared, notwithstanding I had been bothered with this complaint for meany and Showers were there on the Sandarder Trial.

No Whiskey!

Brown's Iron BITTERS is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is guaranteed to be a nonintoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Weep, and you weep alone.

For the sad old earth must borrow its mirth,
But has trouble enough of its own.

Sing, and the hills will answer;

Sigh, it is lost on the air.

The echoes bound to a cheerful sound,
But shrink from voicing care.

Rejoice, and men will seek you;
Grieve, and they turn and go.
They want full measure of all your pleasure,
But they do not need your woe.
Be glad, and your friends are many;
Be sad, and you lose them all.
There are none to decline your nectared win
But alone you must drink life's gall.

Feast, and your halls are crowded; Feast, and your hails are crowded;
Fast, and the world goes by;
Succeed and give, and it helps you live,
But no man can help you die.
There is room in the halls of pleasure
For a large and lordly train,
But one by one we must all file on
Through the narrow aisles of pain.

The following narrative is self-explanatory. The letter which precedes it is a true copy of the original, and was sent to us, together with the details, by an officer now in the United States Navy:

United States Flagship Nomad, Navy Yard, Boston, Mass., January 10, 188—.

My Dear Friend: Your kind favor containing congratulations on my restoration to health is before me. When we parted thirty months ago litt'e did we imagine that either would be brought near death's door by a disease which selects for its victims those who present an internal field of constitutional weakness for its first attack, because you and I were in those days the personification of health—and can claim this to-day, thank God! Why I can do so will be told to-morrow, when we meet at your dinner, as you directly and more deadly and more adjusted to the Admiral's cabin the argand lights, the comfortable furniture, and the numerous evidences of the Admiral's wanderings over land the promote the Admiral's wanderings over land the medicine in the cabin Orderly's hands to be taken into the Admiral's room.

"Thank you, sir, an' God help the Admiral turned to enter the cabin.

There was no cessation in the storm that evening. The gale howled through the rigging in wild, discordant tones; the great ship labored through the white-capped mountains of water threatening to engulf her with each burst of their storm-whipped crests. "Thank you, sir, an' God help the Admiral burst to the rest of the Ranger."

The pale howled through the right and the stand as follow.

I were in the c weakness for its first attack, because you and I were in those days the personification of health—and can claim this to-day, thank God! Why I can do so will be told to-morrow, when we meet at your dinner, as you only know that I have passed through a terrible illness; my delivery from death being due to the wonderful discovery in medical science, made by a man who to-day stands in the front rank of his fellow-workers—unequaled by any in my own opinion. That I, who heretofore have ever been the most orthodox believer in the old school of medicine, its applications and results, should thus recant in favor of that which is sneered at by old practitioners, may startle you, but "see-
